THE ULTIMATE DESIGNER RUNWAY CHALLENGE

1 1/2 Hour Lecture

This presentation documents the year long process of designing and executing a runway ensemble by designers Daryl Lancaster and Loretta Dian Phipps, selected to participate in this challenge by the Handweavers Guild of America, Inc. Using the loom, the dressform, the sewing machine, and adding beads, quilted silk and handmade felt, the pair of designers created a show stopping ensemble.

The Handweavers Guild of America is interested in showcasing the garments from the Designers' Challenge from their 2008 and 2010 conferences, featuring designers like Diane Ericson, Louise Cuttings, Susan Lazear, Linda Kubik, and Fred Bloebaum paired with notable handweavers, at the Atlanta ASG conference
